This penetration test was conducted following the PTES methodology.

Reconnaissance identified exposed services and outdated web components.

Vulnerability scanning revealed SQL injection and XSS flaws.

Exploitation using sqlmap confirmed database access.

Post-exploitation validated system impact.

Remediation includes input validation, patching, and rescan.